All members present

The committee opened in executive session

HB 77 (McGaugh) - Vexatious Litigants

Amendment 1 (McGaugh) - Narrows the definition of a vexatious litigant to certain pro se litigants only

Amendment 1 adopted by v.v. and rolled into HCS

HCS HB 77 voted DO PASS by a vote of 9-2 (Mitten and Roberts dissenting)

HB 596 (McGaugh) - Embalmers and Funeral Directors

Amendment 1 (McGaugh) - This amendment was discussed and distributed two weeks ago (prior to spring break). It will strip auditing authority from the Board of Embalmers and place it with the Division of Finance.

White expressed concern that one division will be auditing while another will be licensing.

Marshall asked if the bill creates an open-ended, no-cap fee. McGaugh states that statute elsewhere clarifies the fee and how it should be assesses. Marshall asked if McGaugh would be open to a floor amendment, to which McGaugh stated that he would be.

Amendment 1 adopted by v.v. and rolled into HCS

HCS HB 596 voted DO PASS by a vote of 10-1 (White dissenting)

The committee exited executive session

HB 727 (Matthiesen) - School Employee Required Reporting

Sponsor Testimony

- This bill would give schools the freedom to internally counsel students who commit assault in the 3rd or 4th degree.
- . Noted that schools are not sure which assaults to report and which to handle internally due to the criminal code revision a few years ago.
- The bill would clearly identify which charges must be reported and would eliminate 3rd and 4th degree assault as a reportable offense

Inquiries of the Sponsor

- Degroot Were there specific circumstances that made this necessary? Matthiesen stated that many schools in St. Louis county were confused about what to report. He added that we should not be sending kids to prison over a hallway fight.
- Mitten To clarify, this bill is borne out of the fact that the legislature failed to update the Safe Schools Act when the criminal code was revised. As a result, confusion exists as to what a reportable offense is.

Testimony In Favor

- Helen Sloan Metropolitan Congregations United
- Dr. Lara Wakefield Special Education Advocate

Print Page 2 of 123

Informational Purposes

- (unknown)
  - o Noted that this bill would still require some misdemeanors to be reported.

*PRIORITY* HB 38 (Higdon) - Mandatory Minimum Sentences

Sponsor Testimony

- This bill would remove the mandatory minimum sentencing requirements for most crimes, with the exception of certain sex crimes and first degree murder.
- Higdon explained how his motivation for the bill is a man who still has 17 years left on his sentence before he is eligible for parole. That man has one semester left until he will complete his bachelor's degree and, as Higdon explained, looks no different than any member of the committee.

Inquiries of the Sponsor

- DeGroot Noted that judges would support this legislation because it gives them more authority in the courtroom. He expressed concern about some judges abusing the discretion given to them in this bill.
- Ellebracht Why leave the superfluous language in the bill (i.e. "mays" instead of "shalls")? Ellebracht asked how he could explain this bill to a defendant who was thinking about taking a plea, when in reality a judge could give them a wide range of sentences. Higdon stated that he took the superfluous language out last year and did not get a hearing, so he is trying this version.
- Ellebracht Could a parole hearing occur immediately? Higdon noted that his intent was for this to be up to the court.
- White Expressed concern that prior offenses would not be factored into a parole decision
- Roberts Supports the bill
- Marshall To clarify, are we getting rid of the statutory minimums for some dangerous felonies? Higdon stated that we are.

Testimony in Favor

- Annette Driver Driver and Associates
- Sheila Winston Former Inmate
- Susan (last name not provided) Former Inmate
- · Alex Eaton Families Against Mandatory Minimums
- Sara Baker ACLU of Missouri
  - Believes that this bill protects 8th amendments rights. Baker added that the recidivism rate for inmates over the age of 50 is 3%, and Missouri has 3,000 inmates over this age. Additionally, these offenders cost 3x as much to house compared to the average inmate.
  - o Ellebracht asked how many of those offenders over age 50 were sex offenders or 1st degree murderers. Baker was unsure.
  - White questioned whe her there would be cost savings associated with releasing prisoners over age 50. He noted that they may have trouble finding a job right away and the state would still need to provide assistance to them when they are released.
- Rachel Cramsey Let's Start
- Rita Linhardt Missouri Catholic Conference
- Rachel Gridler EMPOWER Missouri

HB 519 (Ellington) - Statute of Limitations

Sponsor Testimony

- This bill would remove the statute of limitations for victims of sexual abuse
- In most cases, victims do not want to come forward for various reasons. This legislation would give them the chance to come forward later on.

Inquiries of the Sponsor

- Corlew What are other states doing on this issue? Ellington stated that there are several other states who have eliminated the statute of limitations on child sex abuse crimes.
- . Corlew What is the current statute of limitations in Missouri? Ellington stated that it is 30 years after the age of 18 for criminal offenses.

Testimony In Favor

- Randy Rhoads KC Attorney
  - o Argued this statute in front of the Supreme Court. Due to the publicity (and victory), he received six anonymous phone calls from people claiming that they were sexually abused from the same man that he successfully defeated in court. Rhoads stated that this was a wake up call for him and made him realize just how hard it was for these people to come forward.
  - DeGroot expressed concern about removing the statute of limitations, noting that these defendants have a right to properly defend themselves in court.
  - o Marshall raised the same concern. He stated that the committee must weigh whether the heinousness of the crime outweighs the statute itself. Marshall added that a defense in these types of cases would be incredibly difficult as the years go by.
  - White also expressed concern with removing the statute of limitations. He noted that we tend to assume guilt for these types of crimes when it has not yet been proven. He may, however, be more comfortable removing the statute of limitations on the criminal side as opposed to the civil side.
  - o Corlew noted that the statute of limitations is 10 years for civil cases and 30 years for criminal cases.
  - o Ellebracht raised the point that defendants can always request a motion for summary judgement if they feel a case lacks merit.
  - o Mitten asked if there is a statute of limitation on murder or other deaths? Rhoads was unsure.
- Renee Artman Victim of Childhood Sexual Abuse
- Deborah Gaines Self (Family Member was a Victim of Childhood Sexual Abuse)
- Emily Van Schenkhof Missouri Kids First
- Jason Lamb Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys
- Rachel Gridler EMPOWER Missouri

Testimony in Opposition

- Tyler McClay Missouri Catholic Conference
  - o Expressed concern with removing the statute of limitations in civil cases. Stated that the victims should have known there was a statute of limitations
  - o Mitten took exceptional offense to the Missouri Catholic Conference testifying in opposition to this bill, considering the history of clergy sex abuse scandals in the church. She stated that she was personally offended that the MCC testified on the bill and it was not appropriate. o DeGroot disagreed with Mitten and thanked McClay for his testimony.

HB 338 (Corlew) - Crime

Sponsor Testimony

• Bill states that lesser included offenses must be instructed if there is any evidence to support it, even if the defendant introduced it.

Testimony In Favor

Jason Lamb - Missouri Association of Prosecuting Attorneys

Informational Purposes

- Bill Thompson Self (former Clerk of the Missouri Supreme Court)
  - o Believes that this bill will not advance the clarity of lesser included offenses. Thompson suggested a definition for nested lesser included offenses and believes that all elements should be instructed on.

Marshall expressed concern over the committee bill process, noting that many of them could be subject to a hamerschmidt problem.

Senate - Seniors, Families, and Children

3/29/2017

The Senate Committee on Seniors, Families, and Children convened this morning to hear public testimony on *WATCH*SB 375.

ATTENDANCE: Sens. Sater, Riddle, Romine, Schaaf, Schupp, and Wieland were all present for at least a portion of the hearing.

PUBLIC HEARING:

*WATCH*SB 375 (Hoskins) – Changes the law regarding consent for a minor to obtain an abortion.

Sen. Hoskins provided a brief overview of the bill, stating that it is important that both parents are aware of any medical procedures that are to be performed on a minor child.

Proponents:

Samuel Lee - Campaign Life Missouri

- Lee stated the bill enhances both parents involvement in the child's decision to have an abortion and stated such involvement is important in instances when something goes wrong during an abortion procedure.
- Sen. Sater asked about the consent procedure under current law. Lee stated that the minor must currently get written consent from one parent or get a judicial bypass to prove they are mature enough to make the decision without their parents.
- Sen. Schupp asked what the purpose of the bill was. Lee stated the bill would involve both parents in the medical decisions of a minor. Sen. Schupp stated the government should not interfere with medical decisions.
- Sen. Riddle shared a story of a former student that had an individual pose as her parent in order to obtain an abortion.

Opponents:

Sara Baker – ACLU Missouri

Baker stated the bill presents constitutional concerns and creates problems in instances where parents are abusive or absent.

M'Evie Mead - Planned Parenthood Advocates

Mead stated Planned Parenthood provides a variety of vital women's health services. Mead expressed concern about varying family situations not being conducive to notification and stated that major medical groups oppose such restrictions because they do nothing to further women's health. Mead stated the bill constitutes an undue burden on women and creates a barrier between women and their constitutional right to obtain an abortion.

Kirstin Palovick – NARAL Pro-Choice Missouri

• Palovick stated that Missouri already has strict informed consent law related to abortion. Palovick further stated that the judicial bypass process can be convoluted and biased against granting access to abortion.

Subject: St. Louis Post-Dispatch - 3/28/2017 - Bill to preempt St. Louis anti-discrimination ordinance advances in Missouri House

HB 174 got first-round approval on Tuesday (March 28) by a healthy, bi-partisan 116-34 vote. It will possibly get final approval in the Missouri House by the end of the week, and then on to the Missouri Senate.

The bill would provide protections to pro-life maternity homes and pregnancy resource centers – as well as to he religious and moral beliefs of individuals – who do not want to participate in abortion

It would undo most of the bad effects of the City of St. Louis Board Bill 203.

Bill to preempt St. Louis anti-discrimination ordinance advances in Missouri House

By Celeste Bott St Louis Post-Dispatch

JEFFERSON CITY • The Missouri House gave initial approval Tuesday to a measure that would block recent changes to St Louis' anti-discrimination ordinance, marking the second time this year the chamber acted to override the city's laws

In February, St Louis lawmakers banned employers and landlords from discriminating against women who have had an abortion, use contraceptives, or are pregnant The bill preempts cities like St Louis from enacting ordinances that would infringe on the free speech and religious rights of alternatives to abortion agencies, or facilities that counsel pregnant women against abortion

Those agencies have seen strong support from the GOP-led Missouri Legislature, which has awarded them millions in state tax credits

But Democrats balked at the proposal, having long argued the centers disseminate medically inaccurate information to discourage women from terminating their pregnancies, and therefore shouldn't be awarded additional funding or protections from the state

We should be respecting pregnant women and giving them the care they need, not giving them faulty information under the guise of protecting them," said Rep Stacey Newman, D-St Louis, who called the bill dangerous

City aldermen excluded religious organizations from the requirements of the law, but those anti-abortion advocates maintain that without action from the state, those who choose not to hire employees or rent to tenants based on their beliefs about abortion could be fined. They also fear businesses could be expected to include abortion coverage in their employee benefits

Opponents say the bill warrants state interference in city politics, by a body that typically favors local control

Sponsoring Rep Tila Hubrecht, R-Dexter, countered that the Legislature has gotten involved in local politics before, by enacting laws regulating firearms, plastic bags and most recently, nullifying a minimum wage increase in St Louis

Print Page 7 of 123

"We have a history of deciding that when there's one agency or group trying to infringe upon another one, we have a history of protecting our citizens from unwarranted government intrusion by local public officials," she said

After one more vote in the House, the measure will head to Senate, where it is expected to pass

Legislative leaders and Gov Eric Greitens recently endorsed efforts to block the city ordinance at a Right to Life event at the Capitol, vowing there will be no "abortion sanctuary city" in Missouri under their oversight

This bill is HB 174.

I'm sharing the good news of the passage of HB 174, sponsored by Rep. Tila Hubrecht (R-Dexter), passing the Missouri House of Representatives on Thursday, March 30, 2017 - even though the AP reporter (like many others) doesn't quite get all he facts correct on he St. Louis City abortion ordinance.

Please contact your Missouri State Representative – and if he or she was one of the 118 who voted "Yes" in favor of religious liberty and to end abortion sanctuary cities in Missouri - please send him or her a thank you note. I've attached the roll call vote with he 118, which can also be found here. Please note that five additional pro-life House members who were out of he chamber or had to leave the State Capitol on Thursday (Reps. Paul Curtman, Jeff Justus, Dave Muntzel, Don Rone and Lindell Shumake), had voted in favor of the bill a few days earlier, so please thank them as well!

The bill is now in the Missouri Senate, where lawmakers can take it up for a vote, or in the alterna ive, debate he Senate-companion bill – SB 41 – sponsored by Sen. Wayne Wallingford (R-Cape Girardeau). SB 41 is ready to be taken up anytime by the full Senate.

House passes bill overturning St. Louis abortion ordinance

Katie Kull, AP 10:30 p m CT March 30, 2017
JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — The Missouri House on Thursday passed a bill that would effectively overturn a St Louis ordinance protecting women against workplace discrimination based on whether they've had an abortion, used contraceptives or are pregnant

The bill, which passed with a 118-36 vote and now moves to the Senate, is the second proposal the House has passed this session that would nullify a local St Louis law Earlier this month, representatives approved a bill overturning a city minimum wage increase

Rep Michael Butler, who represents part of St Louis City, pleaded with the House to stop overturning local

"This is the second or third time this session that we're going to do something that affects something only in St Louis," he said "Let my people go "

The most recent ordinance says that no employer in St Louis city limits can fire, discipline or refuse to hire someone based on their "reproductive health decisions" including abortion, using contraceptives, using artificial insemination or getting pregnant out of wedlock Landlords also can't refuse to rent to someone based on those

The law doesn't apply to religious organizations such as churches and schools But there is no exemption for faith-based "crisis pregnancy centers" that counsel women against abortion

Rep Tila Hubrecht, a Republican from Dexter in southeast Missouri, said her bill would allow such centers to operate without fear of "discrimination" by prohibiting local governments and organizations from passing rules restricting the rights of crisis pregnancy centers. It would effectively nullify the St. Louis ordinance, which requires the centers to adhere to the anti-discrimination

She encouraged representatives to follow a tradition of promoting state control

We have a history of making sure that certain businesses and occupations should be regulated by state laws and not multiple conflicting local laws," Hubrecht said But Democrats, who largely come from urban districts in Kansas City and St Louis, slammed the Legislature's reputation of overturning local rules

The degreat offense to the bill sponsor saying that we have done this over and over in the past," said Rep Stacey Newman from St Louis "We have done this over and over in the past against the will of the people"

In 2015 when the Columbia City Council discussed a plastic bag ban, the Legislature passed a bill prohibiting cities from passing ordinances to stop plastic bag use And the law went further: it also stopped local governments from adopting their own "living wages" or requiring businesses to provide employees paid sick leave, reservices are hostly displaint and entire treatment by office.

Despite the rights afforded under the First Amendment, some local governments in certain states have attempted to interfere with those rights.

Charitable and veterans' organizations opening resale shops for fundraising purposes, section 407.489, 2002; and • Paper, plastic bags or reusable bags, section 260.283, 2015.

The legislature has decided that certain businesses and occupations should only be regulated by the state, and not by multiple, conflicting local laws.
